IT SEEMS TO ME

With our 30th Anniversary behind us we are starting on a nice, shiny new year. As you should have already noticed, our Intrepid Artist has designed a brand new cover format which for the first time carries ARRL and ARNS logos. We think that Sam has done another outstanding job.

The new officers, committee chairmen, and the BLURB staff are looking forward to an active and successful year. We will do our best to provide activities, information, programs and equipment to keep Philmont the great club it is, but we need everyone's help. Don't feel that being "a new kid in town" prevents your being actively involved. We still have Charter Members who are active, but we also have a large number of very active members who once were "new kids". Being a Philmonter means being proud of your club and doing your part to enhance the club image. On the air, at meetings, when taking part in any activity, Be A Philmonter!

MAY THIS NEW YEAR AND NEW PHILMONT LEADERSHIP BE THE BEGINING OF NEW SPIRIT AND EVEN GREATER FUTURE, THAN OUR PAST 30 YEARS!

Since we do not have a "Prez Sez" for January we will use the space to list Committee Chairmen for 1980. Next month our new Prez will tell it like it is in this space.

MEETING REPORTS

November Director's Meeting: Held at the home of W3IGW, the meeting covered various committee reports; preparation for the Election of Officers in December; and a lengthy discussion of repeater usage and Net organization. As a result of the discussion a Repeater Ethics Committee, consisting of W3AWH, W3IGW, W3UY, W3BBB, W3SRU, K3GNM and WB3CMM was appointed. The committee will prepare guidelines for conduct on 63/03 and take necessary action to assure compliance with those guidelines.

After the meeting, the 15 members present enjoyed a variety of goodies prepared by our hostess Kitty.

December General Meeting: This was the Association Annual Meeting and the big event was the election of officers. While 8 visitors looked on, the 70 members present cast their ballots and then watched the amazing Tally Team of W3BBB and K3SPS record the vote.

Prior to the balloting, Judge of Election, W3AWH, called on the candidates for each office, except Director, to make a short campaign speech. Humor, impassioned pleas, and facts were the order of the day. W3KN spoke on behalf of W3GQD who was unavoidably absent.

When the smoke had cleared the newly elected officers for 1980 were as follows:

President: Bill Mescanti, WB3CMM
V. Pres.: Bill Chedeville, W3GQD
Secretary: Sam Smith, K3GBA
Treasurer: Jake Kovalchek, AK2I
Director: Al Bubeck, K3GNM (2 years)
 Bob Schmilewske, K3KUD (1 year)

After the evening's strenuous events, the usual refreshments provided by W3PWG were especially welcome.

Dues for 1980 are now due. Remit them promptly to the Treasurer.

* * * * *

Did you know that in its 30 years of existence, Philmont has never missed a General Meeting? 360 consecutive monthly meetings have been held.

* * * * *

During 1979, exchange club newsletters picked up and reprinted Blurb articles 15 times, including 3 of Ye Olde Ed's "It Seems To Me". We are very much flattered and appreciative of that compliment.

* * * * *

Members are requested to renew ARRL memberships through the club Treasurer. By doing this the club will be able to add additional income to the treasury. If you haven't done so to date, give a copy of your QST mailing label to Charlie Stouth, W3ZPP, who maintains a "tickler" file of ARRL renewal dates.
